CITY COUNCIL MEETING OF: FEBRUARY 7, 2007

Minutes:

MAYOR GOODMAN declared the Public Hearing open.

LESLIE DIANE explained that she intends to open a boutique, gourmet, package liquor store that caters to an affluent clientele. She would like to make gift baskets with champagne and goodies. She will only use 700 square feet, and increase in size as time goes on. She agreed not to sell individual or miniature containers.

COUNCILMAN REESE stated that MS. DIANE will wait two years to open such an establishment or until the condominiums and offices are built. MS. DIANE explained that she was told by the Business Licensing Department that she would have to open within 30 days of issuance of a business license. Therefore, she would open a simple store temporarily. COUNCILMAN REESE pointed out that the license application was withdrawn during the morning portion of the meeting. However, MS. DIANE stated she did not withdraw the license.

JOHN WAGNER stated that MS. DIANE has applied for a liquor license. ACTING CITY CLERK BEVERLY K. BRIDGES confirmed for COUNCILMAN REESE that Item 59 was withdrawn without prejudice during the morning session. Therefore, a motion was made to rehear Item 59 and it was held in abeyance to the 2/21/2007 City Council meeting.

MARGO WHEELER, Director of Planning and Development Department, indicated the amendment to Condition 5 and the added condition regarding the restriction of miniature liquor bottles. MS. DIANE agreed with all conditions.

MAYOR GOODMAN declared the Public Hearing closed.
